

Reduce our standards to that of the rest of the world??? Why? Given our charter as a cadre of experienced communicators for disasters and emergencies, and given the proven effectiveness of cw communication under these situations of duress, the requirement for at least a minimal proficiency in morse code should not only be kept, but even expanded to the VHF and up bands.